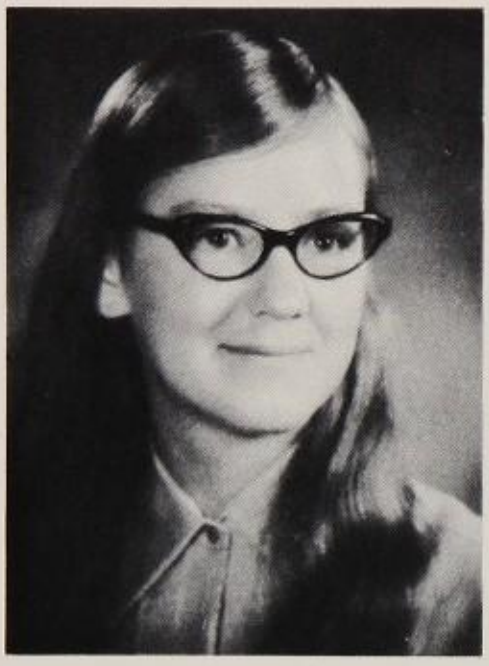
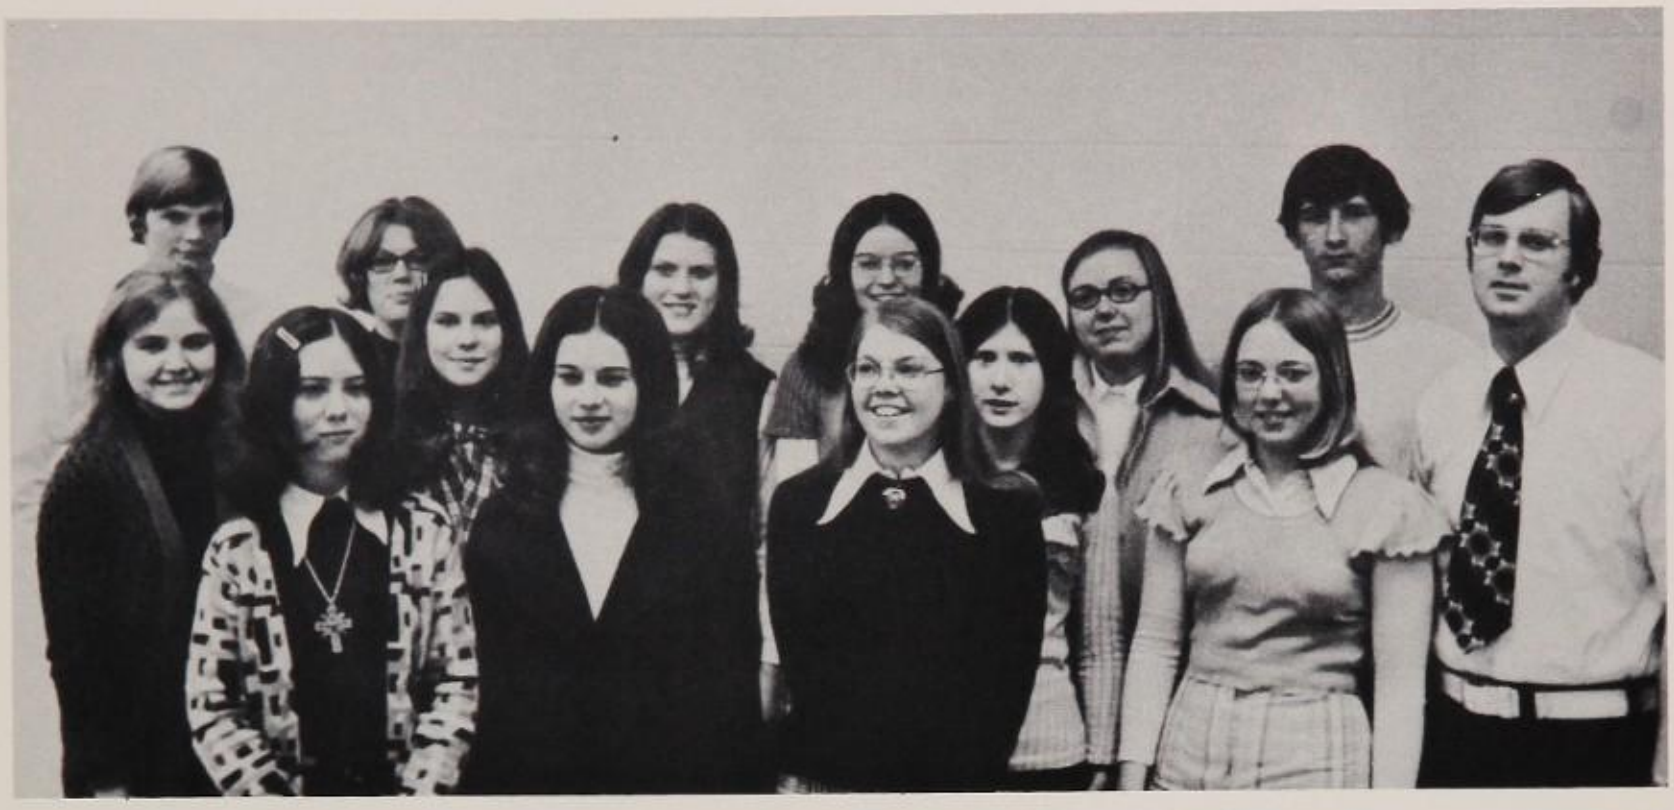
FHA



Appleton East's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for 1973 is Sue Parthie. Sue was chosen by the Betty Crocker Company on the basis of her score on an examination testing her attitudes and knowledge of the art of homemaking. Congratulations to Sue and the other senior members of East's home ec classes who also participated in the contest.

The members of Future Homemakers of America practiced their homemaking skills this year by helping to prepare the dinners at the athletic banquets and selling milk in the commons during the lunch hours. A visit to the Betty Crocker kitchens in Minnesota over their Easter vacation was a high point of their year. Their members are (seated) D. Fulcer, C. Kemkes, P. Pope, S. Kettner, K. Knaus, (standing) S. Schwartz, K. Ulmen, M. Vogl, and their advisor, Mrs. Goolsbey.

DECA



Distributive Education Club of America prepares its members for jobs after graduation by firsthand experience during their senior year. Pickering	Miles Cherkasky
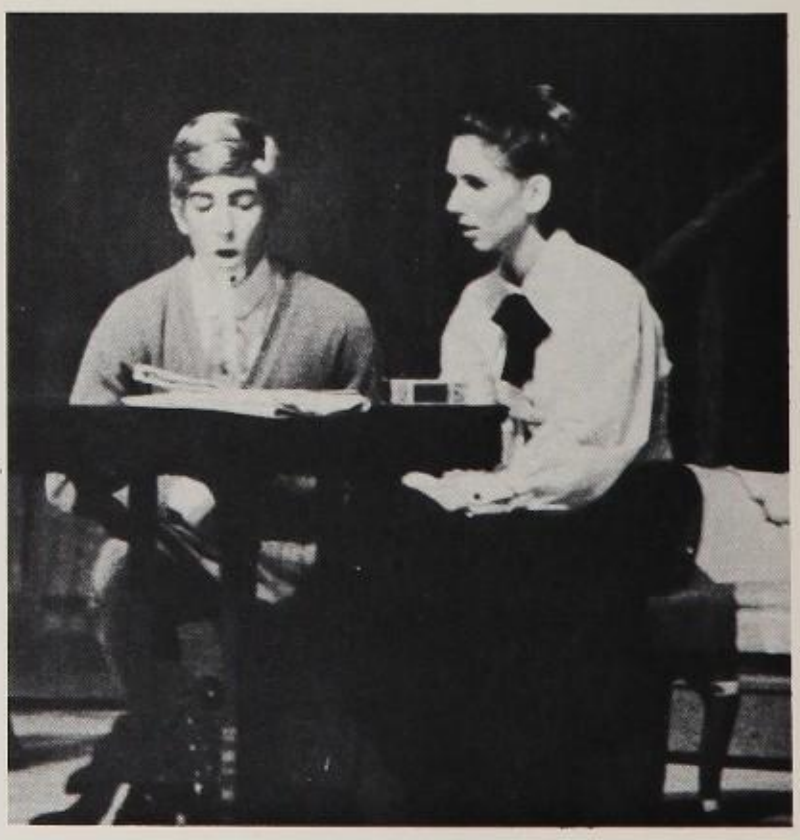
Doolittle	Bill Dafoe
Freddy	Martin Jansen
Mrs. Eynsford-Hill	Nan Ducklow
Harry	Robin Gibson
Jamie	Paul Schmitt

The musical chosen to be put on this year was Lerner and Loewe's "My Fair Lady." The production director was Mr. Svejda with Miss Bubolz as the musical director and Mr. Keliher as technical director. Mr. Case was in charge of choreography and costumes.

"My Fair Lady" is the story of Professor Higgins' venture to teach an uneducated waif off the streets of London how to be a respectable lady, against many difficulties.

The household staff honors Professor Higgins for his successful transformation of a crude flower vender into a prim young lady.

Bill Dafoe staggers out of the pub while Robin Gibson lies in a daze.



Tom Breunig as Professor Higgins and Sue Boldt as Eliza Doolittle spend a quiet evening together practicing their enunciation.

PRETTY GOOD MILE RUN

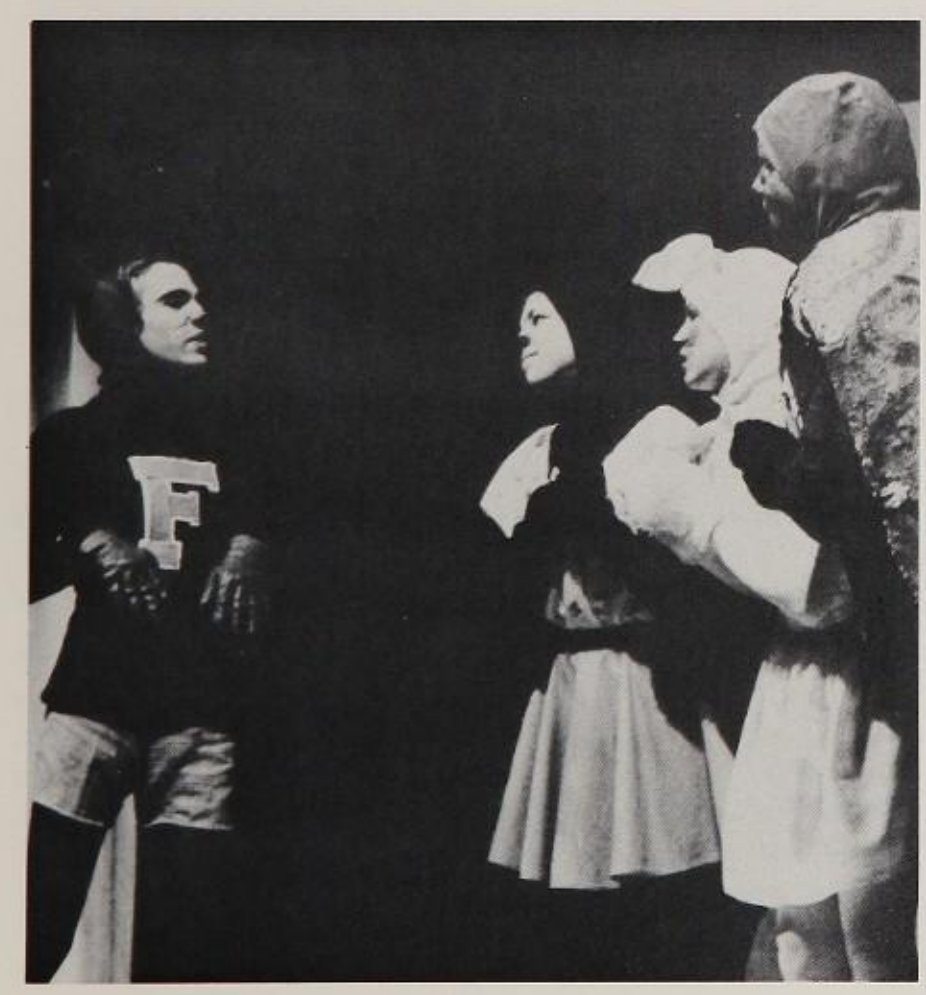
Mr. Badger	Tom Mills	Tom Breunig
Mrs. Brush	Barb Bueche	Vicki Otis
student directors	Pat Woldt	Nancy Peterson
	Pat Bender	Nan Ducklow



"A Pretty Good Mile Run" was put on in February by Children's Theatre under the direction of Mrs. Macke. Traveling to the various grade schools in town, the troupe performed the familiar tale of the tortoise and the hare to the attentive audiences awaiting them. The cast enjoyed the audience responses they got from the younger children and the children enjoyed the play with its moral of "slow but sure wins the race."

INHERIT THE WIND

A dramatic courtroom scene adds to the climax of the play, "Inherit the Wind."

Sympathy and despair are displayed on Sonja Ellefson's face as she soothes Brent Johnson playing her attorney husband, Matthew Harrison Brady.

Doug Purdy points out a vital fact to the jury.

"Inherit The Wind"

Henry Drummond	Doug Purdy
Rachel Brown	Karalyn Moe
Matthew Harrison Brady	Brent Johnson
Mrs. Brady	Sonja Ellefson
E. K. Hornbeck	Howard Schmitt
Judge	Tom Mills
Rev. Jeremiah Brown	Kevin Meighan

"Inherit the Wind" was put on by the East drama department on April 5-7 under the direction of Mr. Svejda. The play is a fictionalized account of the famous Scopes trial of 1925 dealing with a young school teacher accused of teaching evolution in a public school. "He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind; and the fool shall be servant to the wise in heart."—Bible quote.

THESPIANS

Many Thespians were active in stage crew. Their many hours of hard work at such activities as painting scenery, above, and adjusting the lights, right, made the productions possible.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club's plan to "Fold, Spindle and Mutilate" the Kimberly team, led to this contribution in the Homecoming Parade.

Spanish Club members became well acquainted with the effects of spicy Spanish food. Causes of their indigestion were Spanish dinners at Tippy's Taco House and a member's home, and their own successful taco sale.

Pep Band volunteers contributed to Patriot enthusiasm at all home football and basketball games.

"Music, once admitted to the soul, becomes a sort of spirit, and never dies." Bulwer

(ABOVE) Band members try to "warm up" as they await the start of an early morning rehearsal in preparation for homecoming activities. (BELOW) Color Guard members also held many practices in which they designed and ran through parade and football and basketball game marching drills.

Mr. Flood goes "a-broad" for AFS Week.

Appleton East is thousands of miles away from my school in Manila and there are thousands of differences within the school system. My year here has been quite an experience. School starts at 7:45 instead of 7:20, students change classes instead of teachers, and each class is an hour long instead of forty minutes. On Friday night there are dances at school instead of Saturday night parties at someone's house. We can wear jeans instead of uniforms, white socks, and black shoes to school. Of course, a major difference is school being co-ed instead of all-girls.

Beside watching football games and ice hockey, the most fantastic thing I have experienced is winter. In the Philippines, our temperature does not go below 60 degrees, so this was my first time ever to see, feel, and taste snow. I was simply fascinated by it. My style of dress has come a long way from wearing summer clothes all year-round, to wearing coats, mittens, scarves, and boots.

My stay here, just like everywhere else, has come to an end, but I shall forever remember my experiences and the acquaintances I have made here at East. I would like to thank all of you for making my AFS year a Great Year!

Thank You,
Bebs Gatmaitan

East had three foreign visitors this year. Ursula Paerli was a visitor from Switzerland staying with the Orbison family. Bebs, our AFS student from the Philippines, stayed with the Ernests. Yuri Tamura came to the U.S. from Japan as an exchange student in the Youth for Understanding program. Her host family was the Sumnichts.

CHEERLEADERS

Varsity Spirit of '73: J. Orbison, S. Uehlein, N. Chandler, J. Johnson, J. VanAcker, L. Fischer, D. Einspahr

The Active Class of '75 was cheered on by: D. Stinemates, G. Bravick, M. Groves, S. Schleisner, J. Grist, M. O'Connell, J. Buehl

East grapplers were enthusiastically supported by: L. Kennedy, M. Haza, D. Wallis, J. VandenHeuvel, P. Clark, C. Schroeder

It wasn't always so pleasant.

Supplying both enthusiasm and humor were the male cheerleaders of '73: J. Cipriani, E. Ray, D. Lawson, S. Hanes, D. Purdy, J. Retson, B. Dafoe

THE SOMETIMES TOUCH

Sometimes when
things are going badly
You've got to have someone tell you that they care.

Sometimes when
life hurts
You've got to have someone say
they feel it too.

Sometimes when
a million troubles
pull you under
You've got to have someone to lean on.

You
can lean on me
and I will help
just the very little that counts the very most.

FALL

Today it is fall
Not by the calendar of man
    but by the calendar of nature.
The lake is calm
Vacations are gone
Cool water laps against the shore
    and all the docks are taken in.

There is a smell in the air,
A smell of rotting leaves
    A smell of misty morning,
And from the cottage there is the odor
    of wood smoke and bacon frying.

The trees have not turned color
But their time is coming
    In the still morning
    their leaves hang limp.

Squirrels leap and frolic
In nut-filled trees.
They cut the nuts down
    With distinct plops
    and much chattering
As each squirrel tells of his achievement.

Yesterday seven deer walked past.
They were fat and brown
Ready for the hunting season
And the hard winter after.
    They will need all their energy.

The sky is a leaden blue
Merging with the water in the distance.
Small fish leap after minnows near shore
While larger fish watch the small fish
    and fishermen catch nothing.
In the stillness
    their voices are discouraged.
Fall is a time of nature
When fish know plastic imitations
    And are not fooled by man's inventions
A slight breeze comes up;
Small ripples dot the water.
A woodpecker, stirred from lethargy,
Finds the cottage a good pecking spot—
Despite the creosote, grubs thrive on pine siding.
And it is time for breakfast
For both woodpecker and man
At Long Lake.
